Mayor Hall Leaving For New Position

LAC LA BICHE—On Wednesday evening a farewell party, sponsored by the Lions Club, was held at the Legion Memorial hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Hall and Dorothy.

Mr. Hall, who has been in Lac la Biche for the past five years as school superintendent, and even better known as the mayor of the town, has been transferred to Wainwright. The family will be leaving shortly to resume duties there.

During the evening dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours, and then a buffet supper was served.

W. J. Chester as MC called on H. Lobay, MLA for a short address and then Rev. Fr. McGrane who represented the Canadian Legion. On behalf of the Legion members he presented the Halls with a "Mystery Clock."

W. J. Chester, on behalf of the Lions Club then gave his farewell address, voicing the feeling and regrets of the townspeople in losing such splendid community workers as the Halls have been and in expressing wishes for their happiness in their new locality. Mr. Chester then presented Mr. Hall with a Gladstone bag from the members of the Lions.

Mr. Hall replied to the speakers with a thank you and a short address.

The evening was brought to a close with the formation of a circle and the singing of Auld Lang Syne and He's a Jolly Good Fellow.

FIGURES SHOW TB REDUCTION IN CATTLE IN CANADA

ATHABASCA—Figures released by the District Agriculturist, Mr. Codell of Athabasca recently show a marked progress in the TB eradication over the past three decades.

Farmers in the Municipal District of Athabasca who signed petitions for the establishment of a T.B. free area will be particularly interested in the following figures:

Progress in T.B. eradication in Canada since 1922

Cattle tested	Reactors	%
1922-1931	2,327,912	98.33
1932-1941	6,955,049	139,989 2.9
1942-1951	10,932,868	133,132 1.2
March '51 to March '53	3,367,827	12,764 0.38

In some areas during the 1922 to 1931 period, first tests showed up to 30 per cent reactors.

The Municipal District of Athabasca was approved as an area following petition, but foot-and-mouth disease in Saskatchewan monopolized the majority of the Dominion Veterinarians, so the first tests were postponed. When tests might have started, hog cholera broke out in the east, taking a large number of the Dominion Veterinarians there. Hope for the work to be well underway in 1954 is felt by Agricultural officials. The policy of the Alberta Government is to have the province a T.B. free province at an early date.

Plamondon Couple Exchange Vows

PLAMONDON—Miss Rita Gauthier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bosse, and Charles Gaudet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaudet, exchanged marriage vows on August 11 at Plamondon. They were married by Rev. Father Ricard.

The bride wore a lovely floor-length gown of white net and floor-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses.

Little Louise, Bosse, sister of the bride, was flower-girl. She was dressed in a lovely floor-length gown of white taffeta trimmed with silver sequins. She was escorted by her little brother Raymond. Louise is only three years old and Raymond is four. They behaved very nicely.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Gauthier and Miss Denise Ulliac. Lucille wore a pink satin brocade floor-length gown and a wreath of pink flowers. Denise's gown was also satin brocade in blue with a matching blue flower wreath.

The best men were Alcide Gauthier and Roland Ulliac. Both wore grey suits.

After the marriage ceremony, dinner was served to sixty-four guests at the home of the bride's parents. Refreshments were served on the lawn. A lovely buffet supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaudet, parents of the groom.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Desnoyer of Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Amiot of Foothills, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Plamondon of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bosse of Vegreville and Robert Bosse of Vegreville.

In the evening, a large crowd of over three hundred persons enjoyed themselves at a dance in the Plamondon Community Hall. Music was by the local orchestra. "Fiddlin' Ross and his North Star Wranglers."

The young couple are making their home in Plamondon.

Those who arrive on time have a lot of waiting to do.

Alberta Orders Polio Ban

EDMONTON—To curb the mid-summer wave of polio throughout the province, the provincial Department of Health will bar all children under the age of 16 from theatres and swimming pools. The ban went into effect on Friday morning, Aug. 14.

Alberta cities, towns and municipalities were informed of the ban Thursday by Dr. D. A. Somerville, deputy minister of health for the province, and letters containing additional details of the ban were mailed to health officers throughout the province.

The reason for the ban this year is because the toll of polio cases is more uniform throughout the province than last year.

CONTROL OF POLIOMYELITIS

By authority contained in Section 7 of the Public Health Act and for the purpose of controlling the spread of Poliomyelitis, the Provincial Board of Health has ordered that, with effect from Friday the 14th day of August, 1953 and continuing until the order is countermanded, all children of 16 years and under be excluded from theatres and swimming pools.

The Provincial Board has also requested that the following recommendations which may be helpful in controlling this disease be published:

1. The tired child is much more liable to actual paralysis. Avoid fatigue.
2. Polio is a communicable disease. Avoid crowds.
3. Swimming should be avoided because of chilling, fatigue and possible contamination of the water.
4. Avoid contamination by careful personal hygiene, including washing of hands before meals and after using the toilet.
5. High standards of dish washing, washing of fruits and vegetables, and protection of food against flies should be maintained.
6. Keep garbage and waste material covered to avoid attracting flies.
7. Control of sewage should be maintained. Flies in out-door toilets can be controlled by chloride of lime, DDT or ashes, and by proper screening.
8. Where the disease is prevalent locally, operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids should be avoided. Extraction of teeth should also be postponed if possible.
9. Early care will often prevent or limit crippling.
10. Generally speaking, mild cases are best cared for at home. Movement of patients may do harm.

ALBERTA'S CYPRESS HILLS PARK PROVE IMPORTANT ATTRACTION

MEDICINE HAT, Alta.—(BUP)—Tourists pouring into Alberta in record numbers have found a new holiday "must" 40 miles from this prairie city in the southeastern corner of the province.

Some of the strangest country in Alberta is found in the 75 square miles of the Cypress Hills Provincial Park, where many sub-tropical insects, animals and plants still thrive among the forested plateaus.

Many persons, even Albertans, think Cypress trees grow in quantity in the Cypress Hills Park, but such is not the case. The main tree is jack-pine, and the park's name developed from the original French nomenclature given the hilly country.

They called it "Montagne de Cypre," which means "Mountain of Jack-pine." But the first English fur-traders were entirely unaccustomed to this form of pronunciation, and "cypre" became "Cypress," a misnomer which stuck.

The Cypress Hills Park has a long history. During the Ice Age, the west end of the park was one of the few areas in Western Canada which was not submerged by the great sheets of ice.

Rather, an island jutting about 400 feet above the icy plain. As a result, unusual species of plants and insects, which may have been common in Alberta millions of years ago, still exist in the area.

Before the white man came to the west, the Indians waged bitter battle over the hills, which abounded with water, in sharp contrast to the dry, hot plains around. A high spot in the west end of Cypress Hills, called the Head of the Mountain, towers over beautiful Medicine Lodge Coulee, and in early days, gazed down at the Indians who met there every summer for their Sundance ceremonies.

The Indians considered the Cypress Hills a home, and did not hunt in the area, making it a natural sanctuary for deer, elk and bear.

But things changed when the white men descended on the west. Buffalo hunters roamed the hilly plateau, and horse thieves, rustlers and gun men sought hide-outs in the sunken watercourses and jutting ravines. American traders sold whiskey and staples to Indians, and white hunters set up headquarters within its confines.

Finally, when a band of Assiniboine Indians was massacred by Americans in 1873, the Northwest Mounted Police established a base at Fort Welsh in the Cypress Hills, where they could protect the Indians.

Six years later, a 19-year-old Mountie, Constable M. N. Graburn, was shot by the Indians he was trying to protect, and today, a cement marker indicates the spot. It is only one of dozens of historical land-parks found in the Cypress Hills.

The west end of the Cypress Hills has the highest Canadian elevation between Labrador and the Rockies, and is thus cooler and wetter than the surrounding plains.

At one point, the terrain stands 300 feet higher than the railway station at Banff. The Head of the Mountain is 2,730 feet higher than Medicine Hat, only 40 miles away. The average height of the entire plateau region, known as the Bench, is 1,500 feet higher than the surrounding plains.

At the west end of the Bench, tourists get an excellent view of the flat-topped ridges, dry water courses, buttes and draws all mixed up in an awesome scene. Perhaps, because everything is so different from the land less than 50 miles away, tourists from Canada and the United States are determined in their plans to see this "no man's land" which attracts everyone who sees it.

Horse Bumps Car; Fender Dented

BOB ACCORD — Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lawson had a fender crumpled on their car in an unusual accident in the city recently. A horse drawing a milk waggon made a sharp turn on its route, while the driver was delivering milk at a house near-by, thus bumping the car. Settlement for damages was made on the spot. The horse wasn't charged with dangerous driving!

One day when I was at home with my little brother, I was feeling out of sorts, and coming into our place was a neighbor's boy. As I was feeling pretty low I said, "What in the heck does he want." When he came in my little brother said, "My big brother don't like you because he said he didn't want you to come here." Was I ever embarrassed.

COWBOY JOE.

Meanook, Alta.

Having decided to pass a week-end in Edmonton, I hurriedly packed my suitcase and left. Just as I was getting on the bus, "snap" goes the suitcase and everything from curlers to certain personal possessions which I'd rather not mention, went sprawling all over the pavement. Imagine my embarrassment when I hastily gathered up the mess while a whole line-up waited for me to finish my task so that they too could get on the bus.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

"How long you in jail fo', Mose?"

"Two weeks."

"What am de chaj?"

"No charge, everything am free."

"Ah means what dat, you did?"

"I did not my wife."

"You killed yo' wife and you in jail fo' two weeks?"

"Dat's all—den I gits hung."

A farmer, asked what animals he was sending to market, replied, "They're all pigs except four, all cows except six, and all horses except eight."

How many of each was he sending to market?

At a party celebration in Leningrad, a guest discovered a piece of rubber tire in his stew. About to protest, he noticed the eye of a secret police official fixed upon him, and managed a cheerful, "Well, everything is going according to our most optimistic calculations. Here we've been in power only thirty-five years, and already the automobile is replacing the horse!"

"Miss P." reproved her landlady, "I definitely thought I saw you sneaking a young gentleman up to your room with you last night." "You're not the only one, I thought so too."

A seedy-looking gent stumbled into a parlor-car seat directly opposite a very correct Toronto lady, who held on her lap an equally haughty, bespectacled little girl. The lady quite obviously found the proximity of the seedy gent objectionable. In fact, she took the extraordinary step of leaning across the aisle and whispering, "I think you should know that my little girl is just recuperating from a bad case of smallpox, which is still probably contagious."

"Don't let that worry you for a moment," said the seedy one, unperturbed. "I'm going to put my throat in the first tunnel anyhow."

The man who bought a second-hand fliver took it back. "What's the matter with it?" asked the seller.

"Every gosh dern part of the gol blamed thing makes a noise except the horn," said the irate owner.

At the finish line of a big bicycle race from Prague to Warsaw, a Polish lad watched eagerly until the last contestant pedalled by, then burst into tears. "Why weren't there any Russians in the race?" he sobbed. "I was hoping to get my bike back."

Hoarsely the impassioned swain begged, "Whisper those three little words that will make me walk on air. So the debutante sweetly told him, "Go hang yourself."

Q (Give and Take)—What is known as a pampas?

A—A spoiled child.

If you want a thing well done, cook it yourself.

News flashes from the circus: A trapeze artist married the India-rubber man, and is now twisting him around her little finger.

The lion tamer is angry at his lady friend because, he says, she kisses him and gives him a brush-off at the same time. Seems she's the bearded lady.

The assistant manager has tried tonics of eleven different colors to cure his dandruff. He reports, "I finally got rid of the dandruff, all right, but now my head is full of confetti."

Anti-Polio Measures

Youngsters under 16 years of age as well as the owners and managers of theatres in Alberta won't like it—but the ban against children attending picture shows during the polio season is for the general as well as the individual good.

The trouble with poliomyelitis is that nobody knows exactly how one catches the disease nor what measures should be taken to avoid getting it.

It does seem, however, that the polio germ is communicable and more likely to spread into an epidemic where large numbers of people congregate in enclosed quarters. It will be a good experiment to see if the measures being taken now by the Alberta Health Minister will avoid a major epidemic in this province.

Value Of Farm Silos

Silos and silage are receiving an increasing amount of attention on Alberta farms where livestock is a major enterprise. The success of the units in use for the last two or more years has stimulated interest in this method of handling forage. For this reason, the forage harvester is making its appearance on more and more farms, although where moderate tonnages are being handled, the cutter box or ensilage cutter is still being used. In many cases the ensilage is being placed and packed in the silo in the long state, after just a short period of wilting. The tractor mounted loader, the old style rack loader, and a binder and bundler are each being utilized by different farmers to handle the crop.

Silos vary in construction. The trench type is the most common, but there are some conventional upright silos, several snow fence and paper silos, and some stack silos being used. The trench silo is the most versatile and can utilize power equipment for filling with either cut or long silage. This in turn can be packed with a tractor. This latter factor is important, as adequate packing is very necessary if a good grade of silage is to be procured. Tractor packing of stack silos is employed in some areas, but it is a dangerous operation, as packing of the sides of the stack is liable to tip the tractor sideways.

Information on silos and silage may be obtained from the local District Agriculturist, or by writing to the Extension Engineer, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

On Cleaning The Teeth

A group of Washington dentists were recently told by the Executive Secretary of the Southern California Dental Association that apples are an efficient cleaner of teeth. In fact, the official claimed that apples do a superior job of cleaning compared to conventional toothbrushes.

It seems to be agreed that apples are a most beneficial fruit for the body, and since they ship well, the recent advice of the dental official might increase their consumption. However, at this time of year, we like to believe that peaches are equally beneficial. While we know that is not true, we manage to convince ourselves it is every year for a few weeks in the late summer.

The Bible Today

And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.—James, III; 18.

Men Of Valor

To head out into the ocean not knowing where you were going, nobody having come back to tell you what was there, was an act of supreme daring. Familiarity with the story of Christopher Columbus should not make us insensitive to his audacity. In that day the air was supposed to be filled with evil spirits. Think of plunging forward through the blackness of night and the turbulence of storms toward an unknown destination!

Andrew Jackson was the most astonishing man ever to live in the White House. Unlike his aristocratic predecessors, he was a man of the people—rough and sometimes uncouth, profane and violent of temper. But he believed in democracy and had the courage to do what he thought was right. He was elected and at the end of eight years was more popular than before. His contribution to American democracy is vast indeed.

U.S. Restrictions On Trade

The United States Government has put up trade barriers calculated to exclude $2,000,000.00 worth of Canadian farm products from the U.S. market.

As a people, we pride ourselves on our friendly relations with our big neighbor to the South. We would never be guilty of putting an American newspaper reporter in jail for writing the truth, and then demanding better trading conditions as a ransom for his release.

But that is what one little European country—Czechoslovakia—has done. They sentenced a United Press foreign correspondent, William Oatis, to a ten-year prison term and then demanded removal of trade restrictions for his release.

So while Bandit Czechoslovakia gets a better trade deal with the U.S., "Good Neighbor" Canada gets a worse trade deal. As our cartoon illustrates, this is a new concept of "Crime and Punishment" in International affairs.

Cheap Wheat For U.K.

Lord Woolton, who was minister of food in the British government during the second world war, favors the return of the futures grain market because he believes it will bring cheap bread to the British. He made this clear in an address delivered when he laid the foundation stone of the new one billion pound corn exchange.

Said Lord Woolton: "The history of the Liverpool corn exchange . . . is a history that has enabled this country through times of stress as well as of prosperity to have a plentiful supply of cheap bread. . . . This country needs to import between four and five million tons of grain every year. Those of us who are responsible for the government of this country have come to the conclusion that an advantage lies in hastening the time when purchase of commodities can be made through channels of private trade in encouraging the resumption of the (futures) system which served us so well before the outbreak of war."

This statement by Lord Woolton confirms the opinion of the great majority of grain producers in the prairie provinces of Canada that a speculative market is of more advantage to the consumer from a price standpoint than it is to the producers.

Need Of Thistle Control

Every fall toward cutting time weed inspectors are forced to insist that thistle patches be destroyed. The method of destruction is often cutting and burning or at least cutting the crop while it is still immature. Such a practice is very annoying to the farmer and means a lot of futile work on the part of the weed inspector or field supervisor.

The patches of thistles can be controlled now with an application of 2,4-D. The resultant damage to the crop even if it is in head will probably be less than the total yield reduction caused by the thistles. In any case the crop can be allowed to head and mature and the thistles will be given a definite setback whereas the cutting and burning does nothing towards eradicating the thistles—it merely prevents them from setting seed. Check your fields now and hand spray those small patches of thistles, advises G. R. Sterling, Supervisor, Soil Conservation and Weed Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture. It will save you time and money in the end!

Note and Comment

Deliveries of durum wheat and flaxseed will not be subject to deliver quota control in the 1953-54 crop year.

Grain thrips are causing some damage to crops in southern Alberta. Barley is particularly susceptible to this minute pest.

The Canadian gold mines have been bonused by the federal government to the extent of $40 million in the past few years, according to a statement made by M. J. Coldwell.

The United States Department of Agriculture announces the wheat support price at national average of $2.21 a bushel to farmers for the 1953 crop. Last year's average was $2.20.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

ACCENT FROM PARIS

Victoria Times

To most people in this part of Canada, Prime Minister St. Laurent's quips on the Quebec-vs.-Paris accent are matters of academic interest only.

Discussing a language course given at Trois Pistoles, Que., Mr. St. Laurent told a Chicoutimi audience of students: "go there not to learn Parisian French, but real French, the kind of French you and I speak."

That, to scores of high school students in this section of the nation sounds like heresy. Yet how heretical is it? Is the Parisian accent to French what the London accent is to English? And if so, what part of London, or what part of Paris?

MYSTERY

Victoria Times

One of the minor mysteries of the day surrounds the selection of the picture of Canada's current four-cent stamp. The image is reportedly that of the Queen.

PREMIER AND GAS PRICES

I was glad to note a protest in a recent issue against the rise in the price of gasoline.

One farmer was heard to remark: "Every time they find a new oil well, the price of gas goes up and the taxes go up! If they don't stop this oil exploration soon, I'll go broke!"

That such a remark is possible is a direct result of provincial government policy. In the November 1952 issue of the Organized Farmer, Premier Manning was quoted on rejecting FUA demand for more "just prices" for oil, giving the reason that the oil industry is so "highly competitive" as to require no regulation.

How would the Premier explain the fact that in his "highly competitive" industry, the price of gasoline went up by exactly the same amount at the same time all over Alberta? This looks like air-tight monopoly to me!

Mr. Manning should take notice of the fact that the U.S. government is threatening to prosecute what it calls an international oil cartel. In supporting the present exorbitant price situation with the "highly competitive" argument, Manning is either blind to reality, or is giving farmers and motorists the old brush-off.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Hard Working Sister Resents Maternal Consideration Given Lazy Brother

Dear Louisa:

I live with my mother and my only brother. Mother works and so do I but brother doesn't seem to be able to hold a job very long. He is very pleasant but it gets on my nerves to have him sleeping late and sitting around the house all day while mother and I pay the bills.

Personally, I think he is just lazy and not interested in working when he can loaf but mother sympathizes with him and thinks I should help him out when he has the hard luck to be out of work. Which means that the money I have saved for a trip or some special thing very often goes into shirts and shoes for him.

I am getting tired of it and am thinking of getting a job in some other town as I am a very good stenographer. What do you think of this idea?

DISGUSTED.

Answer:

Why mothers think that their daughters should work to support big lazy boys I can never understand but some of them seem to be blind to their son's faults and expect their daughters to take their hard earned money and keep baby boy who is six feet tall and enjoys his morning nap, not only in food and clothes but in cigarettes. Nothing can convince these dotting mothers that these boys are lazy and not suffering from bosses who misunderstand them.

My advice to you, Disgusted, is to tell him that he can either work or move on and if that doesn't have any effect, move somewhere else as you are considering doing. There is no earthly reason for a young girl like you to support a brother who is healthy and has a good mind.

LOUISA

My boy friend and I have been going steady together. When ever he sees a cute girl he leaves me alone. Later he will come back and try to love me up. What should I do? Should I keep on going with him or quit him?

"I WONDER"

Answer:

Why don't you cut loose from the guy and go and dig up half a dozen boy friends yourself. Remember, there are more fish in the sea than ever were caught and if I were you I'd "wash that man right out of my hair." He must think he's pretty good to be able to pick you up and drop you again at will.

Premier Denies Socreds Fascistic, Dictatorial

EDMONTON—A denial that the Social Credit party is "fascistic" or "dictatorial" was made by Premier Manning while addressing a party picnic at the resort centre of Lakeview. The statements appeared in the current edition of New Liberty magazine.

"False, malicious, and deliberately untrue" were the terms Mr. Manning used to describe the statements.

Effects of the oil boom on Alberta's economy have been exaggerated, he told his audience. Oil has received more credit for more things than oil ever got credit for anywhere.

Social Credit was elected in Alberta in 1935 and oil was not found until 1947. In the interim, Alberta was the only province operating on a "pay-as-you-go" basis, he said.

Italy is likely to become big oil supplier.

Third Group In '53 Climb Mt. Robson

JASPER—Mighty Mount Robson, highest peak in the Canadian Rockies has been climbed for the third time this year. Word of the ascent by five U.S. climbers was brought by Mount Robson Park Forest Ranger Jack Wilson.

The latest party to conquer the 12,972 foot peak included Will Shri, Allen Steck and Bill Dunmire of Berkeley, Calif.; Dick Houston, San Francisco, and Bill Long of Richmond, Calif.

The California group followed the same route as the other two 1953 climbing expeditions. The Californians are members of the Himalayan expedition, planning next summer's attempt on 27,790 foot Mount Nakalu, fourth highest mountain in the world. They made the Mount Robson ascent to test high altitude equipment. Prior to 1953 the mountain had not been climbed since 1938.

"Miss Nudist" Needs a Dress

ST. ALBANS, England—Ivy Young, 26-year-old London typist, was crowned Miss British Nudist of 1953 at an outing of 300 men, women and children clad in their birthday suits.

Miss Young, a comely brunette, was asked by reporters what she intended to do with the £10 ($28) prize.

"Buy a dress," she replied.

Gordon Refuses British Post

QUEBEC—Transport Minister Chevrier said that Donald Gordon, president of Canadian National railways, has turned down an offer to become chairman of the British Transport Commission.

During a press conference, Mr. Chevrier said Mr. Gordon decided Tuesday not to accept the invitation "on the grounds that his existing duties and responsibilities were such that they precluded his leaving Canada or considering any other undertaking in the foreseeable future."

Edmonton Soon To Get $6,000,000 Building

EDMONTON (BUP)—The return of the Liberal party in Monday's election gave Edmonton the "green light" for the construction of a $6,000,000 federal building; an 11-storey structure housing many government offices.

That is what mines and technical surveys minister George Prudham told the people of Edmonton Tuesday. Prudham, re-elected as Liberal member in Edmonton West, said the proposed structure will cover an area larger than the Macdonald Hotel. Prudham added the Liberal government would be prepared to construct an all-Canada gas pipeline as soon as Alberta has gas for export.

Edmonton's other Liberal-elect, R. F. L. Hanna said he will push the re-location of Edmonton's airport outside the city.

Alberta Almost Ready To Cut Spring Wheat

Spring wheat cutting should be starting in southern Alberta this week, according to the latest crop report of the Alberta Wheat Pool. Harvesting of fall wheat and rye is in full swing in the southeast and cutting of rye has also started in east-central Alberta.

Taking the province as a whole, yields should be above average but not as good as last year. A late August frost is to be dreaded.

The worst damage the crop has suffered this year is from hail and about eight per cent of the 12,800,000 acres seeded to small grains has been damaged.

SMALLER ACREAGE

Despite the difficult seeding season during the wet spring, this year's wheat acreage in Alberta will be only slightly less than last year, according to an estimate of the bureau of statistics.

The wheat acreage is expected to be 6,340,000, compared to 6,404,000 in 1952; oats 2,357,000 (2,587,000); barley 3,459,000 (3,336,000); rye 460,000 (380,000); flax 148,000 (151,000); with summerfallow 6,375,000 (6,146,000).

The rains last week missed the only region in the province that really wanted moisture—the southeast corner. Elsewhere moisture supplies are now ample for the rest of the growing season.

Condition of crops continues to be worst in the Vauxhall-Brooks district where wheat is reported to be 74:100. Elsewhere the general condition stands about 90, except in the eastern zone of Peace River where wheat is still as high as 105:100, well above normal, and flax at 110.

WORLD-FAMOUS AIR AMBULANCE SERVICE COMPLETES SEVEN YEARS

REGINA, Sask. (BUP)—Saskatchewan's unique air ambulance celebrated its seventh birthday this year, and will look back on 2,000 days of emergency service which flew 5,000 patients the equivalent of 50 times around the world.

But statistics don't tell the real story behind Canada's most dramatic ambulance operation.

Whether on skis, floats or wheels, the Gessna of Beechcraft planes have undertaken missions which rival those of the old Northwest police for sheer dramatic color.

Pilots of the aircraft know the prairie terrain as well as their own yards. Last year they flew an average of 38 hours a week over it. In all the years of its flying, no patient has been lost through accident.

The service fetches polio, cancer and surgery cases from isolated communities, especially in the north, flying them to principal medical centres. On two occasions, ambulance planes lost their race with the stork and babies were delivered high above the ground by trained flight nurses.

Planes are kept at Regina and Saskatoon, the latter doing most of the northern flying. Many patients are ferried to the well-known Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., while others are taken as far afield as Chicago, Minneapolis, Montreal and Toronto.

The ambulance service has a nominal fee of $25 per patient and $10 per passenger, regardless of the distance covered within the province. Outside the provincial area, patients are charged 35 cents a mile and passengers seven cents.

Marilyn Munroe Nearly Drowns

JASPER—Screen star Marilyn Monroe was reported nearly drowned Thursday when she stumbled in swift waters here during a scene for the film, "River of No Return."

The blonde star had donned chest-high rubber waders during rehearsals to protect her costume. She slipped on a rock, the waders filling with water and she was unable to rise.

Actor Robert Mitchum and a dozen crew men leaped in and pulled her to shore. Examination disclosed a seriously-sprained left ankle which may force her out of the film for several days.

Ford Expands Scope

DETROIT—Henry Ford II named Tomas A. Farrell vice-president and general manager of the Ford Motor Company tractor division and announced plans to market a complete line of farm machinery.

A proven strongly made flexible pickup guard, claimed by users everywhere to save more grain, cut faster with less trouble, in flattened, tangled, hauled or sawfly crops, than any pickup device made. Will pay for themselves in a few hours use. Speed one foot apart. State when ordering guard bolts spacing on your machine. Factory to farm price $4.95. Will ship C.O.D.

Low said the major reason for the re-election of the Liberal Party was Canada's prosperity.

The Circus Is Coming To Town

The blare of bands, tooting of calliopes, roaring of wild animals, lumbering elephants, prancing horses, daring performers, antics of funny clowns—the Circus is coming to town! Wallace and Clark Wild Animal Circus will give two performances in Athabasca, afternoon and night, on Wednesday, August 26. This circus comes here highly recommended as being a high class circus, with an outstanding performance of topnotch circus acts, trained animal acts, and an outstanding zoological exhibit which contains many rare and strange animals. The outstanding animal of this or any other circus is a huge hippopotamus, alive and weighing over four tons. The Wallace and Clark Circus imported this animal this year at great expense from the River Nile in Darkest Africa, and it is said to be the largest ever captured by man. The circus will arrive in Athabasca early on the morning of Wednesday, August 26.

PRUDHAM RE-ELECTED; HANNA WINS; HOLOWACH DEFEATS FRED MACDONALD

Mines Minister George Prudham was re-elected Monday with a hefty majority in his Edmonton West riding, and although Liberal candidate R. F. L. Hanna carried Edmonton Strathcona, Social Crediter Ambrose Holowach nosed out liberal incumbent A. Fred MacDonald in Edmonton East.

A recount, however, will be held next week in Strathcona, where Hanna defeated National Social Credit Organizer Orvis A. Kennedy by a margin of only 170 votes.

Hanna carried the majority of polls in South Edmonton, but strong Social Credit support in rural sections of the riding built up Kennedy's strength as vote-counting progressed throughout the evening.

Prudham's strength was evenly spread throughout the urban and rural polls of his constituency, and his re-election completed the return to office of every member in the cabinet of Prime Minister St. Laurent.

A see-saw battle waged back and forth in the entirely-urban Edmonton East seat, which MacDonald won for the Liberals in 1949 when he defeated Holowach and independent Social Crediter Pat Ashby.

Political observers had forecast that MacDonald might have a difficult time, because his vote in 1949 was exceeded by the total of the two Social Credit candidates.

Prudham—Alberta's only cabinet minister—was the second member to be conceded election in the province Monday night. His opponents admitted defeat at 8:30 a.m.

Even more confusing than the unsettled Edmonton East picture were the returns in Strathcona, where Kennedy conceded defeat about 10 p.m. with only a dozen polls to be heard from. However, those final polls showed startling strength for Kennedy, and the Social Crediter was on the verge of withdrawing his concession when the last report put Hanna out ahead by 170 votes.

Kennedy, a former member of parliament, was elected to the House of Commons in a by-election in Edmonton East in 1938, but was defeated when he sought re-election in 1940. Hanna is a resident of Edmonton's South Side, and a member of the City Council. Here are the final returns for each of the three Edmonton seats:

EDMONTON WEST

Prudham (Lib.)	10,704
Havard (SC)	7,553
Fowler (PC)	4,749
Mentz (CCF)	2,019
Raapana (LPP)	365

EDMONTON STRATHCONA

Hanna (Lib.)	8,821
Kennedy (SC)	8,651
Main (PC)	4,006
Johnson (CCF)	2,213

EDMONTON EAST

Holowach (SC)	8,757
Macdonald (Lib.)	7,495
Hidson (PC)	2,662
Atkin (CCF)	1,793
Tuomi (LPP)	641
McArthur (Ind.)	241

Edmonton East was the only riding in Alberta to have six candidates. Independent M. D. McArthur—the only candidate without party ties—ran on a platform of better housing, but drew only negligible support.

"Yes... I Condemned THE CATHOLIC CHURCH"

"And you would, too," wrote a non-Catholic recently, "if all the things I heard about it were true."

"For years, I kept hearing that the Catholic Church was opposed to the Bible and tried to suppress it. I was told that the Church had changed Christ's teaching and practiced pompous pagan forms of worship. It was told to me that Catholics worship statues and images, and that the Catholic Church defied God's law and changed the Sabbath."

"But now I have learned that these stories and many others about the Catholic Church are not true—and never were."

Every day, thousands of our non-Catholic friends and neighbors are discovering, as this man did... that Catholic belief, worship and history are widely misrepresented and misunderstood.

That is why we publish these advertisements... and invite you to write for free explanatory pamphlets. We want you to know us as we are—not as false rumors and slanders represent us to be. We want you to know... if only for your own information... what the Catholic Church actually teaches, and what we Catholics actually believe.

This enables you to get authentic information about the Catholic Church—to investigate in the privacy of your own home. Then... even though you may not agree with Catholic beliefs and practices... you will at least understand them. Only then will you be able fairly and in good conscience to judge our Faith and what it is founded upon.

But more than truth and fairness are involved. For if it is true... as we claim it is... that the Catholic Church is the Church established by Christ, it is vital to your salvation that you investigate the genuineness of this claim. That is why we publish these messages. That is why we are happy to send you... without cost or obligation... authentic information about the Catholic religion on which to form your judgment.

Free

An interesting pamphlet to read in the privacy of your home. It explains Catholic teaching on such matters as divorce—mixed marriages—gambling and drinking—why Catholics do not attend non-Catholic worship—and answers many of the false rumors you have heard about the Catholic Church. No cost—no obligation. Write today—ask for Pamphlet No. KC-15.

QUESTIONS

about Cancer

QUESTION: Is there any danger of catching cancer if handling a cancer patient if there is a sore on the hands?

ANSWER: No. Cancer cannot be "caught" as can diseases due to germs. However, good personal hygienic practice dictates that, in handling dressings from an open cancerous ulcer, rubber gloves should be worn or the dressing handled with instruments as are other soiled dressings.
